WELCOME

The festival Days of ethnographic film (DEF) is a joint venture of Slovene Ethnological Society, of Slovene Ethnographic Museum and of Scientific Research Centre of Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts.

I am proud to announce the festival of extremely high quality, which we didn't have before in Slovenia. This year DEF was accepted as a member of CAFFE (Coordination of anthropological film festivals in Europe).

For the first time we shall see the works of Eugeniy Aleksandrov, Asen Balikci, Peter Biella, David MacDougall, Björn Reinhardt, Jay Ruby, Hugo Zemp and excellent student films from Granada Center for Visual Anthropology. We shall see the works of our close European neighbours and the neighbours from South Eastern Europe which is witnessing an advent of a new ethnographic film.

Ethnographic film is becoming a sensitive barometer of global cultural changes. A great variety of different forms of visual ethnography and observational documentary will be exposed, which are presenting anthropological and ethnological questions of the third world and of more complex questions of global and glocal socio-political environments.

The festival is containing of several sessions. In Slovene Ethnographic Museum the session Footage and multimedia with commentary will take place as the first one. This is a specific session of DEF. It was made for the Researchers to display their visual work-in-progress, a non-edited footage followed by commentary and discussion. After the opening of the festival in Monday, May 19, 2008, other sessions will follow in the City Museum of Ljubljana and in the Atrium ZRC: the Student film session, and after that the program of selected ethnographic films.

Special programs of DEF are special by dear guests from abroad. Dr. Paolo Piquerreddu from Sardinian Institute for ethnographic Research in Nuoro will present the program of Sardinian ethnographic films. Distinguished guests are dr. Asen Balikci the doyen of ethnographic film with a program of his last films and dr. Allison Jablonko the teacher of the Summer School of the Visual and a long-lasting friend of Slovenian ethnographic filmmaking. Eddy Appels is the head of Beeld vor beeld festival in Amsterdam. He will present new directions in Dutch visual anthropology and the program of Dutch ethnographic documentaries.

During the DEF Slovene Ethnological Society will award for the first time Niko Kuret awards for ethnographic film, not only for a production but for important contribution in the field of ethnographic film and visual anthropology in general. Awarding ceremony will take place in Thursday, May 22, 2008 in the Atrium ZRC SAZU.

Let me say thanks to all who made possible this festival. Among already mentioned trustees I am grateful to the City of Ljubljana, to the City Museum of Ljubljana, to the Slovene Academy of Sciences and Arts, to the Istituto Italiano di Cultura in Slovenia and to the Royal Netherlands Embassy.

Dr. Naško Križnar

DOBRODOŠLICA

Pred nami so drugi Dnevi etnografskega filma (DEF), skupno podjetje Slovenskega etnološkega društva, Slovenskega etnografskega muzeja in Znanstvenoraziskovalnega centra SAZU.

Veseli me, da lahko najavim izredno kakovosten festival etnografskega filma, kakršne ga v Sloveniji še ni bilo. Letos so bili Dnevi etnografskega filma sprejeti v evropsko mrežo festivalov etnografskega filma. V Ljubljani ne bomo videli nič manj kakovosten program kot na drugih evropskih festivalih. Prvič bomo videli dela Evgenija Aleksandrova, Asena Balikcija, Petra Bielle, Davida MacDougalla, Björna Reinhardta, Jaya Rubyja, Huga Zempa in odlične študentske filme Granada Centra za Vizualno Antropologijo. Videli bomo dela naših bližnjih in daljnih evropskih sosedov ter sosedov iz jugovzhodne Evrope, ki se prebuja na področju etnografskega filma.

Etnografski film postaja občutljiv barometer globalnih kulturnih sprememb. Predstavljen bo izredno velik razpon različnih oblik vizualne etnografije in observacijskega dokumentarca, ki prikazujejo antropološka in etnološka vprašanja od tretjega sveta do kompleksnejših družbenih vprašanj našega ožjega okolja.

Festival je razdeljen na več sekcij. Najprej bo v Slovenskem etnografskem muzeju tekla sekcija Vizualna gradiva s komentarjem, ki je posebnost DEF. V njej raziskovalci predstavljajo svoje še nezmontirano gradivo in vprašanja povezana z vizualno produkcijo. To bo simpozijski začetek festivala.

Po otvoritvi DEF v ponedeljek 19. maja 2008, bodo sledile sekcije v Mestnem muzeju Ljubljana in v Atriju ZRC; najprej študentska sekcija, nato pa celodnevni redni programi izbranih filmov.

Letošnja novost so gostje s svojimi programi. Dr. Paolo Piquerreddu, gost iz Italije, bo predstavil program sardinskih etnografskih filmov ter inštitut I.S.R.E. (Istituto Superiore Regionale Etnografico), ki se intenzivno posveča filmski dokumentaciji. Častna gosta festivala sta dr. Asen Balikci (Kanada, Bolgarija), starosta svetovnega etnografskega filma, ki bo predstavil svoje zadnje filme in dr. Allison Jablonko, dolgoletna predavateljica na Poletni šoli vizualnega v Novi Gorici in dolgoletna prijateljica slovenskega etnografskega filmanja. Iz Amsterdama je gost Eddy Appels, direktor festivala Beeld voor beeld, ki bo predstavil sodobne usmeritve v nizozemski vizualni antropologiji in izbor nizozemskih etnografskih filmov.

Na Dnevih etnografskega filma bo Slovensko etnološko društvo prvič podelilo nagrado Nika Kureta za etnografski film, ne samo za produkcijo, temveč tudi za druga prizadevanja na področju etnografskega filma. Podelitev bo v četrtek, 22. maja 2008 v Atriju ZRC.

Ob koncu velja zahvala tistim, ki so omogočili, da bomo festival lahko izvedli. To so poleg omenjenih predvsem Slovenska akademija znanosti in umetnosti, Mestna občina Ljubljana, Mestni muzej Ljubljana in Italijanski inštitut za kulturo v Sloveniji ter Ambasada Kraljevine Nizozemske.

Happy New year

2008, 8 min.

Stara Fužina, 26. 12. 2005, izdelava 2008.

Proizvodnja: Slovenski etnografski muzej.

Raziskava in fotografija: Nena Židov; montaža N. Valentinčič Furlan;

Content:

Otepanje is a Christmas/New Year custom that has survived only in the villages of the Upper Bohinj Valley. It is practised on St Stephen's Day (Stara Fužina, Studor) or on New Year's Eve (Srednja vas, Češnjica, Jereka). The otepovci – masked Christmas/New Year carol singers (koledniki) – go from house to house in the village and wish people a happy New Year. In return, they are given sausages, spirits, eggs, and money. The custom is performed by the village's young men. The tour of the village ends in a local inn the evening; the edible gifts are consumed and the money is split between the otepovci.

The images shows otepanje in Stari Fužina in 2005. The otepovci are masked and accompanied by an accordion player. The leader of the group, called mér, keeps record of the gifts received. The Baba (Old Woman) carries the basket in which the eggs and spirits are put. Three of the "furry" figures - trogar (carrier), metlar (broom-maker) and fehtar (collector) – have specific roles in the performance. Following a personal initiative, they were joined by a new masked figure – smrekca (spruce) – in 2005. The villagers welcome the otepovci in front of their houses or invite them in. If nobody answers their call at a house, the otepovci draw a sausage on it.

Oris problematike:

Otepanje je božično-novoletna šega, živa le še v vaseh Zgornjega Bohinja. Poteka na štefanovo (Stara Fužina, Studor) ali na silvestrovo (Srednja vas, Češnjica in Jereka). Otepovci – maskirani božično-novoletni koledniki –, obiščejo vse hiše v vasi in zaželijo srečno novo leto. V dar dobijo klobase, pijačo, jajca in denar. Nosilec šege je vaška fantovska skupnost. Obhod se zvečer zaključi v vaški gostilni, kjer zaužijejo darove in si razdelijo denar.

Posnetki prikazujejo otepanje v Stari Fužini leta 2005. Otepovci so našemljeni, spremlja jih harmonikar. Vodja skupine je mér, ki tudi vodi zapisnik o prejetih darovih. Baba nosi cekar, v kategrega spravlja jajca in pijačo. Med "kožuhastimi" liki imajo posebno vlogo trogar, metlar in fehtar. Leta 2005 se jim je na lastno pobudo pridružil še nov šemske lik smrekca. Prebivalci vasi so otepovce sprejeli pred hišo ali povabili v hišo. Pri hišah, kjer jim niso odprli vrat, so narisali klobaso.

Pilgrimage / Romanje
 2008, 5 min.

Čatež-Zaplav, 14. 8. 2002, izdelava 2008.
Raziskava in fotografija N. Židov; montaža N. Valentinčič Furlan.

Content:

Pilgrimages to Zaplav became popular in the early 19th century and the first church was erected there in 1848. The water of a spring, called St Mary's, in the vicinity of the church is thought to have healing properties. Crowds of pilgrims from all over Dolenjska and from around Slovenia gather every year at the parish church of sv. Mihael in Čatež on the eve of Assumption Day. From there they walk to Zaplav and the pilgrimage church of the Assumption.

The images show the pilgrims gathering in Čatež and the procession with the statue of St Mary, candles and torches from the church of Čatež to the church on Zaplav, called the Dolenjska Brezje (a famous place of pilgrimage in Gorenjska). The pilgrims pray all along the way and the procession ends with a solemn mass on Zaplav.

Oris problematike:

Božja pot na Zaplav je zaživelva v začetku 19. stoletja, prva cerkev pa je bila tam zgrajena leta 1848. V bližini cerkve je tudi Marijin studenec, ki velja za zdravilnega. Vsako leto se na predvečer praznika Marijinega vnebovzetja ob župni cerkvi sv. Mihaela v Čatežu zberejo številni romarji s celotne Dolenjske, pa tudi s širšega območja Slovenije. Iz Čateža krenejo na božjo pot na Zaplav, kjer stoji romarska cerkev Marijinega vnebovzetja.

Posnetki prikazujejo zbiranje romarjev v

Čatežu ter procesijo z Marijinim kipom in s svečami ter baklami izpred cerkve v Čatežu do cerkve na Zaplavu, imenovanem tudi Dolenjsko Brezje. Romarji na poti ves čas molijo, procesija pa se na Zaplavu zaključi s slavnostno mašo.

Pravljice, modrosti, življenske zgodbe... / Fairy tales, wisdoms, life stories...

Predstavila bom tri zvrsti pripovedi: pravljice, modrosti in življenske zgodbe, ki smo jih posneli za drugi del stalne razstave Jaz, mi in drugi, Podobe morega sveta. Pravljice in ljudske modrosti bomo predvajali v sklopu zaključne vsebine razstave. Avtorica koncepta celotne razstave in vsebinska avtorica njenega uvodnega in zaključnega dela mag. Janja Žagar je snemanje in montažo pripovedi prepustila podpisani. Mag. Daša Koprivec, ki je skupaj z dr. Markom Frelihom soavtorica predzadnjega razstavnega sklopa Človek v razmerju do sveta, raziskuje Aleksandrinke za doktorsko disertacijo, nekatere njihove pripovedi pa bo vključila tudi na stalno razstavo.

I. Pravljice. Skupna dolžina 9 minut. Naslov neznan, pripoveduje Fanči Vidmar, julija 2007 na Vojskem posnela Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

Bog je svet delil, Svetemu Petru se ni ljubilo pobrati podkve, pripoveduje Marija Cvetek iz Srednje vasi v Bohinju, maja 2007 v Ljubljani posnela Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

oba Jenče iz Dolenje vasi pri Cerknici, januarja 2008 v Ljubljani posnela Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

Prva je ljudska pripovedovalka, druga je slavistka in etnologija, ki ljudsko blago zapisuje, pripoveduje in tudi interpretira, tretja je profesionalna pripovedovalka.

II. Življenjske modrosti. Skupna dolžina 6 minut.

Ana Zablatnik, Bilnjovs, Avstrijska Korška, sprašuje Mojca Račič, posnela junija 2007 v Bilnjovsu Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

Ashike Biakreddy, Arizona, Združene države Amerike, junija 2007 v Ljubljani posnela Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

Posneli smo po enega pripovedovalca iz Slovenije, iz zamejstva in iz sveta. Večinoma smo začeli z življenjsko zgodbo in se potem usmerili v življenjske modrosti, spoznanja in vrednote. Tuji pripovedovalec govorí v Dine oz. Navajo jeziku, vsebina bo dostopna s podnapisi v slovenskem in angleškem jeziku.

III. Življenjska zgodba. Skupna dolžina 4 minute.

Alberta Gregorič, Prvačina, Raziskava in pogovor Daša Koprivec, oktobra 2007 v Prvačini posnela Nadja Valentinčič Furlan.

Referentka bo predstavila koncept, »raziskavo terena«, metodologijo in način snemanja, spregovorila bo tudi o načinu predvajanja na razstavi.

Content:

The fragments will be screened from the footage produced in the year 2002, in the frame of bilateral Research project Slovenia / Austria. The heads of the project were mag. Martina Piko Rustia and dr. Naško Križnar. Three films were edited from this footage: Gathering eggs, The performance for the tourists and The interviews with participating persons.

The Research, which was the basis for visual ethnography, compared several customs on both sides of Slovenian Austrian border and found many similarities. One of the Researched customs is so called »jajčarija«, still practised in Javorje (Slovenia) and in Šmarjeta / S.Margareten (Austria). It is a traditional gathering of eggs from house to house. A group of young boys is coming to the house at night, enters and find a dinner served, while the inhabitants are sleeping. After consuming the supper they take the eggs which were left in the kitchen for them. To show their gratitude the boys leave some wooden crosses in the kitchen, made by them especially for this occasion. Video documentation is presenting the visits in the houses and final evening two weeks after the event, organized by the boys for all who donated eggs. This is a tradition which is turning to be a performance for the tourists as well.

Oris problematike:

Prikazani bodo odlomki iz gradiva, ki je bilo posneto leta 2002, v okviru bilateralnega projekta Šege kot identifikacijski dejavnik v razvoju novih evropskih regij (Slovenija / Avstrija). Nositca projekta sta bila Martina Piko Rustia in Naško Križnar. Iz gradiva so nastale tri enote: Jajčarija, Predstava za obiskovalce in Izjave sodelujočih. Od vsake bo prikazan daljši odlomek.

Primerjalna Raziskava, ki je podlaga vizualne etnografije, je prinesla ugotovitve o podobnih šegah na obeh straneh slovensko avstrijske meje. Ena od njih je jajčarija, ki je bila obravnavana v Javorju nad Črno in v Šmarjeti v Rožu. Gre za eno obhodnih šeg, v kateri sodelujejo vaški fantje, ki hodijo od hiše do hiše dolgo v noč in zbirajo jajca. Ko pridejo k hiši, so vrata odklenjena in čeprav domači spijo, fantje vstopijo in v kuhinji najdejo pripravljeno malico. Ko zakurijo v štedilniku in pomalico, na mizi pustijo v zahvalo lesene križce, ki so jih sami naredili za to priložnost, odnesejo pa zanje pripravljena jajca. Z video kamero so dokumentirane priprave, poход od hiše do hiše, dogajanje v hiši in zaključna prireditev (gauda), ki je tudi turistični dogodek, nastal iz tradicionalne šege.

Oak Park Stories is a series of reflexive ethnographic explorations of a Chicago suburb - one of the most successfully integrated places in the U.S. Employing interactive and digital technologies four portraits present an anthropological perspective of this “social experiment” through written and video portraits of African American, lesbian and WASP families.

Zgodbe iz Oak Parka so serija refleksivnih etnografskih raziskav čikaškega predmestja – ki je v ZDA eno od mest z najuspešnejšo integracijo. Z uporabo interaktivne in digitalne tehnologije predstavljajo štirje portreti antropološko videnie tega “družbenega poskusa”, s pomočjo pisanih in vizualnih portretov afriškega Američana, lezbične in WASP družine.

Proizvodnja: Muzej novejše zgodovine Celje

Raziskava: Tanja Roženbergergar Šega

Fotografija: Aleš Šega

Montaža: Jaka Kovačič

Content:

The visual material that is being presented was made in the context of the museological project Alma – Vox populi, which tells about the extraordinary woman Alma Maximiliana Karlin (Celje, 1889-1950). On the tapes we present different personal memories of individuals who remember her as a neighbour, as a brave person who escaped from cannibals or as a woman who went to the slovene partizans. By watching the material, we are able to see Alma through the eyes of ordinary people. To the author of the project it was a challenge to show the film material in the exhibition in a new way. That's why there was co-operation with an artist – heritage became inspiration for art and art a form of presenting heritage.

Oris problematike:

Predstavljeni vizualno gradivo je nastalo v okviru muzejskega projekta Alma – Vox populi, ki odstira podobo svojevrstne popotnice, ustvarjalke in Celjanke Alme Maximiliane Karlin (Celje, 1889-1950). Na video posnetkih in njihovih zapisih so predstavljena pričevanja, osebni spomini posameznikov, ki so Almo poznali kot nevsakdanjo in posebno sosedo, se z njo srečevali na poti proti njenemu domu na Pečovniku, jo poznali kot pogumno osebo, ki je na tihomorskih otokih ušla ljudožercem, odločno žensko, ki se je med 2. sv. vojno podala k partizanom, ali kot pisateljico in življenjsko sopotnico Tee Gamelin. Posnetki predstavljajo ustvarjalko v očeh preprostih oseb, sosedov, otrok in tistih, ki se je spominjajo iz bežnih srečanj v Celju.

Na ta način so nastali zanimivi in povredni dokumenti, poseben izviv pa je avtorici projekta pomenila predstavitev vizualnih zapisov v obliki muzejske razstave. S sprejeto razstavno formo prepleta dediščine in umetnosti je dediščina postala navdih umetnosti in umetnost oblika predstavljanja dediščine, s čimer sledi sodobnim trendom vzajemnega delovanja in ustvarjanja.

Content

This film was edited from four hours of "Visual Notes" videotaped on May 13, 2007, during the "Musical Walk" through the Umbrian town of Passignano sul Trasimeno. The event celebrated the ties between the communities around Lake Trasimeno and the Music School of Trasimeno and demonstrated the school's approach which, starting from the earliest grades, is based on group lessons and ensemble performance, as well as on individual instruction. The event had many meanings for the different participants – the mayor, organizers, teachers, students, siblings, parents, visual anthropologist/videographer, tourists, and local residents. Viewers are invited to identify these various strands and to note how the film represents classical music in this particular cultural space. In order to emphasize the embodied nature of musical performance, the film, shot with one camera only, wrestles with the challenge of retaining synchronous sound while shortening the full video record.

Oris problematike

Ta film je narejen iz štirih ur "vizualnih zapiskov", posnetih 13. maja 2007, med "Glasbenim sprehodom" po umbrijskem mestu Passignano sul Trasimeno. Dogodek je proslavil vezi med občinami okoli Trasmenskega jezera in Glasbeno šolo Trasimeno ter prikazal šolski pristop, ki je od najzgodnejše stopnje osnovan na skupinskih učnih urah in skupinskemu muziciranju kot tudi na posameznemu inštruiranju. Dogodek je imel več ponovov za različne udeležence – župan, organizatorji, učitelji, dijaki, starši, vizualna antropologinja, turisti in krajani. Gledalci so bili povabljeni, da prepozna-jo te različne tokove in opazijo kako film predstavlja klasično glasbo v določenem kulturnem prostoru. Da bi poudaril resnično naravo glasbene predstave, si film, posnet z eno kamero, prizadeva ohraniti sinhroni ton in hkrati skrajšati celotni video zapis.

Content

The EU project „Carnival – King of Europe“ gathered experts from ethnographic museums in Italy as project leaders, as well as partners from France, Croatia, Bulgaria and Macedonia, who cooperated and participated in joint field Research which resulted in valuable audio-visual documentation records. In this presentation, I would like to present and analyse the recorded material from several aspects:

- 1 Material created through targeted activities with informants prepared in advance:
Interview about carnival customs (Mauro Dorčić, Žejane, 18 January 2008)
Camera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, duration: 3'06''
Interview and presentation of the making of a mask (Žarko Lučić, Viškovo, 19 January 2008)
Camera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, duration: 1'09''
- 2 Material created spontaneously as an authentic document of a particular moment:
Antonije celebration (17 January 2008 in Matulji and Frlani)
Camera: Vladimir Bocev, DVD, duration: 4' 20''
- 3 Material resulting from recording of carnival processions in individual countries (Croatia, Italy, Bulgaria, 2008)

Camera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, duration: 6 '

- 4 Material processing and Editing: creation of the film "The Bell Bearers of Rukavac" to be presented at the exhibition "Carnival – King of Europe".

Camera, direction, editing: Michele Trentini, DVD, duration: 12 '

Research results and films will be presented at the joint travelling exhibition and at conferences in Trento and Zagreb.

Oris vsebine:

V evropskem projektu Karneval – kralj evrope, so se zbrali poznavalci iz etnografskih muzejev v Italiji kot vodje projekta in partnerji iz Francije, Hrvaške, Bolgarije in Makedonije, ki so sodelovali v skupnih terenskih Raziskavah, katerih rezultat je dragocena avdio vizualna dokumentacija. V tej predstavitevi bi rada predstavila in analizirala posneto gradivo iz različnih vidikov:

- 1 Gradivo ustvarjeno s ciljnimi aktivnostmi z vnaprej pripravljenimi informanti:

Intervju o karnevalskih šegah (Mauro Dorčić, Žejane, 18. januar 2008)

Kamera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, trajanje: 3' 06"

Intervju in predstavitev izdelovanja maske (Žarko Lučić, Viškovo, 19. januar 2008)

Kamera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, trajanje: 1'09"

- 2 Gradivo, ki je nastajalo spontano kot avtentični dokument določenega trenutka:

KOMENTARIJEM

Antonje proslava (17.januar 2008 v Matuljih in Frlanih)

Kamera: Vladimir Bocev, DVD, trajanje: 4'20"

- 3 Gradivo kot rezultat beleženja karnevalskih obhodov v posameznih državah (Hrvaška, Italija, Bolgarija, 2008)

Kamera: Zvjezdana Antoš, DVD, trajanje: 6'

- 4 Obdelano in zmontirano gradivo; izdelan film Nosilci zvoncev v Rukavcu, ki bo predstavljen na razstavi Karneval – kralj Evrope.

Kamera, režija in montaža: Michele Trentini, DVD, trajanje: 12'.

Raziskovalni rezultati in filmi bodo predstavljeni na skupni potujoči razstavi in na konferencah v Trentu in v Zagrebu.

Al-Hadji in njegove žene
USA, 2006, Jie Li, 50 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: SE Cameroon
/ jugovzhodni Kamerun

The Al-Hadji and His Wives is a 50-minute film portrait of a Mbororo Fulani patriarch, Al-Hadji Isa, his savvy wives, and their rebellious daughters. The documentary provides a glimpse into their everyday lives, religious and moral practices, as well as the political opinions the Al-Hadji has to offer from his particular corner of the world. With a critical but sympathetic gaze, it also chronicles and investigates the process and rationale by which Amina, a 16-year-old daughter of the family, is forced into an unwanted marriage. While her attempted escape had been in vain, Amina has inscribed her silent protest on the walls of her mother's hut and onto the film, serving as a testimony of women's resistance and resilience under an oppressive patriarchy.

Al-Hadji in njegove žene je portret patriarha iz plemena Mbororo Fulani, Al-Hadji Ise, njegovih žena in njihovih uporniških hčera. Dokumentarec odškrne pogled v njihovo vsakdanje življenje, verske in moralne prakse, ter Al-Hadjijeva politična mnenja. Kritični in obenem sočuten pogled beleži in raziskuje tudi proces in načela, po katerih je Amina, 16-letna hčerka, prisiljena v neželeno poroko. Njen poskus bega ni uspešen, zato svoj nemi protest izrazi na stenah materine koče in s sodelova-njem v filmu, ki priča o uporništvu in iznajdljivosti žensk pod patriarhalnim zatiranjem.

Madžarska

Three generations under one roof: Lina, Lissi, Franz and Peter call themselves Swabians. They live in Nadasch, a German Village in Hungary, where their ancestors arrived 300 years ago. The observational documentary describes the everyday life of the Sipos / Frank family, their relation to the land they live off and their effort to keep a sense of German identity in contemporary Hungarian society. Only glimpses of a violent past interrupt the peaceful and quite rural life and personal tragedy proofs to be more important than historical landmarks.

Tri generacije pod eno streho: Lina, Lissi, Franz in Peter se sami imenujejo Švabi. Živijo v Nadašu, nemški vasici na Madžarskem, kamor so njihovi predniki prišli pred 300 leti. Observacijski dokumentarec opisuje vsakodnevno življenje družine Sipos / Frank, njihov odnos do zemlje od katere živijo in njihovo prizadevanje, da bi ohranili občutek nemške identitete v sodobni madžarski družbi. Samo prebliski nasilne preteklosti zmotijo miroljubno in mirno podeželsko življenje in osebna tragedija se izkaže za pomembnješo kot zgodovinski mejniki.

Location / kraj snemanja: Bering Sea Coast, Alaska / obala Beringovega morja, Aljaska

“A Way of Making Life Beautiful” explores the meaning of art for the Central Yup’ik Eskimo. The Yupiit, who reside on the southwestern shore of the Bering Sea Coast in Alaska, were beautifying everyday objects and paraphernalia for centuries. In the course of the last hundred years—through the introduction of Western belief and political-economic systems—the purposes and forms of Yup’ik art have rapidly changed. The Yup’ik way, people believe is in danger because of the traumas they have endured in the last century- the battle over religious believes, epidemics, the introduction to a market economy, alcoholism, abuse and suicide. In this video, Yup’ik artists describe the importance of Yup’ik art as a return to Yup’ik values, in the context of the social realities of contemporary Yup’ik life.

Ta film raziskuje pomen umetnosti za osrednje Yup’ik Eskime. Yipiiti, ki živijo na severozahodni obali Beringovega morja na Aljaski, že stoletja dolgo olešujejo vsakodnevne predmete in orodja. Zadnjih sto let – po sprejetju zahodnjaskih verovanj in politično ekonomskega sistema – so se namen in oblike njihove umetnosti hitro spreminali. Ljudje verjamejo da je njihov način življenja v nevarnosti zaradi pretresov, ki so jih doživljali v zadnjem stoletju – zlasti zaradi boja za njihovo vero, zaradi epidemij, uvajanje tržne ekonomije, alkoholizma, zapostavljanja in samomorilstva. V filmu yupiški umetnik opisuje pomen yupiške umetnosti kot povratak yupiških vrednot v kontekstu družbene realnosti sodobnega yupiškega življenja.

In the frame of an ethnological film project with the title “cultural institutions in Muenster” we have accompanied a group of drummers and other musicians on their regular meetings and musical improvisations at the harbour for one year. The music consists of diverse rhythms representing different cultures because the people making the music show some kind of heterogeneity.

We have concentrated on ethnological, sociological and psychological point of views as scientifically base.

In this context music of these persons seems to be much more than only a being together in a creative way. Music can be interpreted as a kind of international language with which you can express emotions. Also it is able to reduce conflicts, because it works as means of social organization.

V okviru etnološkega filmskega projekta “kulturne ustanove Muenstra” smo eno leto spremljali skupino bobnarjev, ki se redno srečujejo in improvizirajo v pristanišču. Njihovo glasbo sestavljajo različni ritmi, ki predstavljajo različne kulture, kot so heterogeni sami glasbeniki. Znanstvena osnova so bili etnološki, sociološki in psihološki vidiki. Glasba je več kot samo njihovo ustvarjalno sobivanje, lahko jo razlagamo tudi kot mednarodni jezik, s katerim lahko izražamo čustva. Poleg tega zmanjšuje napetosti, ker zbljuže ljudi.

Japan / Anglija & Japonska

Intimate and warm, this portrayal of the film-maker's Japanese mother explores experiences, reflections and memories of family and life in Japan and “barbaric England”.

As the journey unfolds, we find ourselves in Japan for The Festival of The Dead. Here, the emotional idiosyncrasies that lie behind this national cultural festival are revealed, and the importance of “blood,” “land” and “culture” in understanding “home”, and who we are in the world, is put into question...

Ta filmski portret režiserkine japonske mame, intimen in topel, raziskuje izkušnje, razmišljanja in spomine o družinskem življenu na Japonskem in v ‘barbarski Angliji’. Ko se odvija potovanje, se znajdemo na Japonskem ob Prazniku smrti. Tu se obudijo osebni čustveni vzorci, ki ležijo za tem narodnim kulturnim praznikom in pomenom ‘krvi’, ‘dežele’ in ‘kulture’ v razumevanju ‘doma’, in znajdemo se pred vprašanjem kdo smo na tem svetu...

Filmed in Dheisheh refugee camp in the West Bank, the documentary follows a group of children with their Palestinian and European trainers, participating in a circus summer-camp. Despite the joy and laughter of the circus there are constant reminders of the ongoing political confrontation. How is the conflict integrated in the children's everyday reality and the circus activities? What place has the circus project in the children's hope and despair?

Dokumentarec, posnet v begunskega taborišču Deiši na Zahodnem bregu (Palestina), sledi skupini otrok, ki s svojimi palestinskim in evropskim trenerji sodelujejo v poletnem cirkuškem taboru. Navkljub veselju in smehu v cirkusu, so prisotni stalni opomini o potekajoči politični konfrontaciji. Kako je konflikt vključen v realnost otroškega vsakdana in v cirkuške aktivnosti? Kakšno mesto ima cirkus v otroškem upanju in obupu?

The world of the library is complex, full of ambiguities and double meanings. It is an institution that has had little attention in anthropological debate or in the minds of most of its users. Upon further consideration, its seemingly unobtrusive or neutral position in the conscious thought of many brings about questions of its purpose, its use, and its history. Manchester was one of the first cities in Britain to open a public library. How will the Manchester Central Library evolve?

Svet knjižnice je kompleksen svet, poln nejasnosti in dvojnih pomenov. To je ustanova, kateri se antropološke diskusije ali misli njenih uporabnikov zelo malo posvečajo. Upoštevanje njenega dozdevnega nevsiljivega ali neutralnega položaja v zavesti mnogih prinaša vprašanja o njem namenu, o njeni uporabi in njeni zgodovini. Manchester je bilo prvo mesto v Britaniji, ki je odprlo javno knjižnico. Kako se bo razvijala?

Location / kraj snemanja: Kazakhstan & Czech. Rep. / Kazahstan & Česka

In villages across Kazakhstan, every morning the herds are driven out to graze in nearby pastures, and in the evening, the shepherds drive the herds back home. For Kazakhs, every person has a special blood-bond with the land where he was born. That land is like a second mother that he should love, honour and return to.

In OTAN (Motherland), a Kazakh student in Prague returns home to Kazakhstan for the first time in a year. Soon thereafter, his father returns to his birthplace after 35 years away. A journey from Prague to Kazakhstan and across the steppe, this film travels with father and son as they fulfill their duties to their parents and re-discover their 'otan' (motherland).

V vseh širok Kazhstana vsako jutro ženejo pastirji črede na pašo na bližnje pašnike in jih zvečer ženejo domov. Za Kozake ima vsaka oseba posebno krvno povezavo z deželo v kateri je rojena. Ta dežela je kot druga mati, ki jo je treba ljubiti, častiti in se vračati k njej.

V filmu Domovina se kozaški študent врача iz Prage v Kazahstan, prvič po enem letu. Kmalu se tudi njegov oče po 35 letih vrne v rodni kraj. Film kaže Potovanje iz Prage v Kazhstan in preko step, kaže potovanje očeta in sina, ko izpolnjujeta svojo dolžnost do staršev in ponovno odkrivata svojo domovino.

Film is showing the great importance of devotional music in Kerala (Indija). "The music is a language to talk with God, because the God is a lover of music (Sangita Priya)" is saying Balaram, the teacher of tabla, traditional Indian instrument. He is teaching tabla many young pupils and his grandson Brijesh is already very well known player of tabla. In the film we meet also Kamath a player of mridangam, another traditional instrument. In the second part of the film Suchee, a local organizer of musical events, is explaining how his small company functions in educating the tourists in the field of traditional music, which is an important part of Indian culture.

Film prikazuje pomen verske glasbe v Kerali (Indija). "Glasba je jezik za pogovor z bogom, ker bog je ljubitelj glasbe (Sangita Priya)" pravi Balaram, učitelj table, tradicionalnega indijskega inštrumenta. Ima števile mlade učence, njegov vnuk Brijesh pa je dobro znan igralec na tablo. V filmu srečamo tudi Kamatha, igralca na mridangam, drug tradicionalni inštrument. V drugem delu filma nam Suchee, lokalni organizator glasbenih dogodkov, razloži kako njegovo malo podjetje deluje pri izobraževanju turistov na področju tradicionalne glasbe, ki je pomemben del indijske kulture.

For over a thousand years, the Shikoku Henro pilgrimage has connected 88 sacred places along a circular route of 875 miles around Shikoku, Japan's fourth largest island. Shot over a period of nine months and based on ethnographic survey methods, this film reveals in an intimate manner, the motives, aims and desires of modern Japanese people as they follow this Buddhist pilgrimage. The filmmakers themselves walked the entire route, accompanying various different pilgrims through long stages of their journeys. Not only are the experiences of the pilgrims themselves documented, but also impressions and observations of Shikoku residents, priests and academic experts. Presenting the pilgrimage as a microcosm, Walking Pilgrims offers profound insights into the religious and socio-cultural background of modern Japanese society whilst at the same time pointing to the universal human quest for self-knowledge.

Romanje Šikoku Henro že preko tisoč let povezuje 88 svetih krajev ob krožni poti dolgi 875 milj okoli Šikokuja, četrtega največjega japonskega otoka. Film so snemali devet mesecev in je osnovan na etnografski metodi. Na prisrčen način obuja motive, cilje in želje modernih Japoncev, ko sledijo budističnemu romanju. Tudi ustvarjalci filma so prehodili celotno pot in spremljali različne romarje v dolgih fazah njihovega popotovanja. Vendar niso zabeležene samo izkušnje romarjev; zabeleženi so tudi vtisi in opažanja prebivalcev Šikokuja, duhovnikov in strokovnjakov. Film predstavlja romanje kot mikrokozmos in ponuja globok vpogled v versko in družbeno kulturno ozadje moderne japonske družbe ter hkrati opozarja na univerzalno človekovo potrebo po samospoznavanju.

Romania / Romunija

At the beginning of the last century, Romanian peasants discovered the solemn music of the military bands when they went into the cities. They were so impressed by these that they wanted to have brass bands in their villages as well. With the arrival of the communists, these popular country marching brass bands were invited to participate at official events. The regime confiscated their land, built immense industrial complexes and many of the farm-workers became factory workers. The brass bands then became a symbol of the people's well-being and the brotherhood between the farm and factory workers. With the fall of the Communist regime, many factories closed down...

Na začetku prejšnjega stoletja so romunski kmetje, ko so prihajali v mesta, odkrili slovesno glasbo vojaških orkestrov. Prevzela jih je in žeeli so imeti pihalne skupine tudi v svojih vaseh. S prihodom komunistov so bile popularne podeželske pihalne godbe povabljene k sodelovanju pri uradnih dogodkih. Režim je zaplenil njihovo zemljo, zgradil obsežne industrijske komplekse in mnogi kmetje so postali tovarniški delavci. Tedaj so pihalne godbe postale simbol ljudskega blagostanja in bratstva med kmeti in delavci. S padcem komunističnega režima so zaprli številne tovarne.

Sweden, 2007, May Gauffin, 57 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Nepal

In Nepal daughters are married at a very young age and left to be dependent on their men, giving birth and taking care of parents-in-laws. Throughout this one hour long documentary we get to meet women from different parts of Nepal in close up interviews. They speak of their histories, lives, struggles and dreams, through which we understand the vast force of tradition on the life situation of today's women in Nepal. The stories have been recorded during a period of important political transitions in the Nepalese society, August 2006 – May 2007, when the Maoist revolutions had put down their weapons, which also allowed for meeting with some of the women from Maoist movement.

V Nepalu se hčere poročijo zelo mlade in v pričakovanju da bodo odvisne od svojih mož, da bodo rojevale in skrbele za moževe starše. V dokumentarju srečamo žene iz različnih predelov Nepala, ki nam govorijo zelo od blizu. Govorijo o svojih zgodbah, življenjih, bojih in sanjah, s pomočjo katerih razumemo izjemno moč tradicije na področju življenjskih položajev današnjih nepalskih žena. Zgodbe so bile zabeležene v času pomembnih političnih sprememb v nepalski družbi, od avgusta 2006 do maja 2007, ko so Maoisti položili orožje, kar je omogočilo tudi srečanje z nekaterimi ženami maoističnega gibanja.

Feast of corpus Christi / Tejlovo

Slovenia, 2007, Jelka Pšajd, 21 min.

Location / kraj snemanja:

Bogojina, Slovenia

Thursday after the St. Trinity Sunday is a holiday of corpus Christi, called telovo. Church celebrates the transformation of bread into Christ's body that was first performed by Jesus on Thursday before his death on the cross. In the village of Bogojina (North-Eastern part of Slovenia) a ritual is preserved of decorating the path walked by the procession with birch branches and rising of four altars. People burn the candles on the windows for the by-passing Christ. They believe that the branches and the flowers used in the ritual are blessed and that they possess sacred strength against lightning and misfortunes, therefore they take them home to preserve the house. We documented gathering of birch branches and decorating the path through the village and the altars. The ritual is presented by following one family among many.

Četrtek po nedelji Sv. Trojice je praznik presv. Rešnjega Telesa – telovo. Na ta dan slavi Cerkev spremenitev kruha v Kristusovo telo, kot jo je Jezus prvič opravil v četrtek pred svojo smrtjo na križu. V Bogojini se je še ohranilo postavljanje brezovih vej ob poti, kjer gre procesija in postavljanje štirih olтарjev ob poti. Ker v procesiji nesejo Najsvetejšega, v tem času zanj gorijo na oknu sveče. Razširje-na je vera, da so veje, mimo katerih gre procesija, blagoslovljene in da vsebujejo obrambno moč proti ujmam, streli in ne-zgodam. Vsak si brezovo vejico odlomi, tudi šopek rož in jih odnese domov, da varuje hišo. Posneli smo pripravo brezovičnih vej – odhod v gozd, iskanje in sekanje vej, prihod domov, okraševanje poti skozi vas in oltarjev ob njej. S kamero smo spremljali eno družino, ob njej pa še ostale vaščane in vaški dogodek.

Funeral Chants from Georgian Caucasus / Pogrebne pesmi na gruzijskem Kavkazu

Switzerland, 2007, Hugo Zemp, 21 min.
Location / kraj snemanja: Svaneti, Georgia / Svaneti, Gruzija

The villages of the Svaneti province are located in north-western Georgia, in the valleys that lie between the high peaks of the Caucasus. The Svans represent about 1% of the Georgian population. Their language differs from the Georgian language, and their religion is a syncretism of Orthodox Christian faith and pre-Christian beliefs. The polyphony of the Svans appears as one of the major styles of the Georgian vocal art. It consists of two soloist voices and the bass of the choir. In their funeral rituals, the Svans combine three vocal expressions which are rarely found nowadays in other parts of the world: women's individual laments punctuated by collective cries like in Ancient Greece, men's individual laments, and polyphonic chants by male choirs.

Vasi dežele Svaneti se nahajajo v severo zahodni Gruziji, v dolini, ki leži med visoki mi vrhovi Kavkaza. Svan predstavljajo 1% prebivalstva Gruzije. Njihov jezik se razlikuje od gruzijskega in njihova vera je mešanica ortodoksne krščanstva in predkrščanskih verovanj. Večglasnost Svanov se kaže kot ena glavnih slogov gruzinske vokalne glasbe. Sestavlja jo dva solistična glasova in bas zbara. V tem obrednem petju Svan kombinirajo tri glasovne izraze, ki jih težko najdemo v ostalih predelih sveta: posamezne ženske žalostinke, poudarjene s skupinskim kričanjem kot v staro Grčiji, posamezne moške žalostinke in večglasno petje moškega zbara.

Guča after party

Slovenija, 2008, Mojca Kovačič, Urša Šivic, 17 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Slovenia

Film s pomočjo priповedi članov dveh

slovenskih glasbenih zasedb (Dej še'n litro in Strizzy) odstira glasbene in družbene motive za popularnost t. i. trubaške glasbe med slovenskim občinstvom in nastanek slovenskih trubaških skupin. Uspeh srbskih trubačev v slovenskem glasbenem prostoru je spodbudil številne slovenske glasbene skupine s podobnim inštrumentalnim sestavom, da so v svoj repertoar pričele vključevati tudi tovrstno glasbo. Film je podprt z glasbenim dogajanjem z različnih prizorišč: koncertov v Sloveniji (Bled, Ljubljana) in zasebne zabave (Guča after party v Famljah pri Divači), festivala trobentačev v Guči (Srbiji). Pogled zunanjega opazovalca je v filmu zajet v priopovedi predstavnika potovalne agencije (Collegium iz Ljubljane), ki oriše publiko in posreduje statistične podatke o obisku Slovencev v Guči.

The narrative of two Slovene music ensembles (Dej še'n litro and Strizzy) reveals musical and social motives of the popularity of Balkan brass bands among Slovene audience as well as the appearance of such Slovene bands. The success of Serbian brass bands in Slovene musical space stimulated numerous Slovene bands with similar instrumental structure to include such musical style into their repertoire. Different musical scenes contribute to the brass band presentation in the film: concerts in Slovenia (Bled, Ljubljana), a private party (Guča after party, Famlje at Divača), the festival of brass bands in Guča (Serbia). Furthermore, a representative of the travel agency (Collegium, Ljubljana) presents the outsider's point of view outlining the audience and giving statistical data on Slovene attendance at the Guča festival.

Herdswoman / Voditeljica črede

Sweden, 2008, Kine Boman, 58 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Sápmi, Sweden / Švedska

Herdswoman is about three Sami to whom reindeer herding is more than a mere occupation. It is a way of life, their culture. Aina, Elisabeth and Lisa belong to different generations. Their stories reflect life in Sápmi (Lapland) and the transition from nomadic existence to modern society. The film relates their pleasure in working with the reindeer. They live with and for their herds. The women raise questions about the essence of life. Their thoughts, dreams and memories show their view of life and its essential values. When a court case questions their ancient rights to the reindeers' pasture their life as reindeer keepers is at risk.

The film illustrates man's inner driving force and the struggle for existence. It shows the vulnerability of indigenous peoples in modern society and the colonisation process, which has led to the present conflict about the right to land and water.

Film prikazuje tri generacije Sami žensk, za katere je vzreja losov več kot samo poklic. Za Ainino, Elisabetho in Liso je to način življenja, njihova kultura. Njihove zgodbe odražajo življenje v mestu Sápmi (Lapland) in prehod iz nomadskega bivanja v moderno družbo. Živijo s svojo čredo in zanj; njihove misli, sanje in spomini razkrivajo njihovo živiljenjsko filozofijo in njihove vrednote. Ko tožba na sodišču postavi pod vprašaj njihovo starodavno pravico do paše, je ogrožen njihov način preživljanja z gojenjem losov. Film prikazuje ranljivost prvobitnih ljudstev v moderni družbi in kolonizacijski proces, ki je privедel do spora glede pravice uporabe zemlje in vode.

Like the divisions in Bosnian politics, Bosnian schools are divided and operate under apartheid. Muslim children are separated from catholic children. They have different areas of the playground, different school entrances, 2 headmasters, 2 sets of teaching staff and 2 different histories are taught in the same building. In Gornji-Vakuf High School Croats are taught downstairs, Muslims are taught upstairs. Petar, a Catholic student from downstairs, ventures upstairs to meet his Muslim counterpart.

Bosanska družba je danes razdeljena med katoliške Hrvate, muslimane in pravoslavne Srbe. Ima tri državne poglavarje, ki predstavljajo interes svojih etničnih skupin. Film je bil posnet v treh razredih v katerih hrvaški, muslimanski in srbski učitelji poučujejo različno zgodovino iste domovine. Na ta način se vidi kako zgodovina oblikuje nacionalno identiteto in kako jo lahko zlorabljujo in uporabljajo za sejanje rasnega sovraštva.

Tako kot bosanska politika so tudi bosanske šole razdeljene in delujejo na način apartheidu. Muslimanski otroci so oddvojeni od katoliških otrok. Imajo različna območja za igranje, različne vhode, dva ravnatelja, dve skupini učiteljev in učijo se dve različnim zgodovini v isti stavbi. V Gornjem Vakufu je hrvaška srednja šola spodaj, muslimanska pa zgoraj. Petar, katoliški dijak iz spodnjega dela si nekoč drzne povzpeti v gornji del, da bi srečal muslimanskega vrstnika.

Location / kraj snemanja: Slovenia

The introductory film to the Slovene Ethnographic Museum's permanent exhibition offers a brief insight into important aspects of daily life of Slovene ancestors. The screenwriter Gorazd Makarovič, Ph.D., designed it to cover the migration of the Slavs onto the territory of the current Slovenia, their dwellings and farming methods, the appearance of castles and towns, peasant revolts, the formation of Slovene language. There are few archeological finds, frescoes or books bearing witness to this time, so the film also makes use of animations and reconstructions of farming and handicraft tasks.

Film je uvodna filmska informacija v stalno razstavo Slovenskega etnografskega muzeja. Zamišljen je kot zgoščen prikaz najpomembnejših potez vsakdanjega življenga naših prednikov. Vsebinsko pokriva naselitev Slovanov na ozemlje današnje Slovenije, njihov način preživljavanja, kulturo prehranjevanja in bivanja, nastajanje gradov in mester razvoj obrti v njih, kmečke punte in oblikovanje slovenskega jezika. O tistem času pričajo le redke arheološke najdbe, freske in knjige, zato film uporablja animacije in rekonstrukcije kmečkih in rokodelskih opravil.

For more than a century glasses production has permeated the culture and lifestyle of the people of the Cadore (Belluno Province, Northern Italy), representing an alternative in the past to the declining traditional activities of agriculture and pasture and to the widespread exodus from the mountains. This film introduces us to this little known world through the manual work and commentary of Antonio Frescura who is the last artisan to be still making glasses frames in tortoiseshell often using home-made methods and machines. It is an art whose origins stretch well back into the past...

The government of Gujarat has consistently ignored the Little Rann of Kutch (LRK) area. The salt workers of LRK, known as Agariyas, are predominantly from the Koli and Chuvaliya tribes. As bonded labores, they are not only victims of wage discrimination; they are endure serious physical and mental health hazards due to the dangerous nature of their work. Kharaghoda village itself is home to 437 widows. Working in extreme temperatures without any protective gear, many Agariyas suffer major health complications, including blindness and skin damages due to unprotected exposure to salt. Living in abject poverty, Agaryas now face water scarcity as well as malnutrition since green vegetables are nor available in this area.

Gujaratska vlada vztrajno zanemarja območje Little Rann of Kutch. Solinarji na tem območju, znani kot Agariyas, so večinoma iz plemen Koli in Chuvaliya. Kot odvisni najemniški delavci niso samo žrtev najemniške diskriminacije, temveč resno trpi tudi njihovo telesno in duševno zdravje zaradi nevarne narave njihovega dela. V vasi Kharrghoda domuje 437 vdov. Mnogi Agariyas zaradi dela v skrajni vročini in brez zaščitne opreme, trpijo velike zdravstvene komplikacije, vključno s slepoto in poškodbami kože, ker so izpostavljeni soli brez zaščite. Živec v skrajni revščini, se Agaiyas zdaj sočajo še s pomanjkanjem vode in tudi s podhranjenostjo, saj na tem območju ni na voljo zelenjave.

Luc de Heusch was born in 1927 in Brussels. From 1944 to 1949 he studied at the Université Libre de Bruxelles and from 1951 to 1952 at the Sorbonne. In 1955 he received a doctorate in anthropology from Brussels University. As an assistant to Henri Storck his first experiences in filmmaking came in 1947. Luc de Heusch participated in the formation of the Cobra group in 1949, and joined the group as a writer and cinematographer until it disbanded in 1951. Under the pseudonym of Luc Zangrie he made the only Cobra film, the cinematographic poem Persephone (1951). Between 1952 and 1955 he continued his ethnographic studies conducting fieldwork in the former Belgian Congo for the Institut pour la Recherche Scientifique en Afrique Centrale. During this time he began to make films with an ethnographic and ethnohistoric emphasis: Fête chez les Hamba (1955) gives an account of daily life and ritual practice in a village of the Hamba of Kasai, Ruanda: tableaux d'une féodalité (1956) is an historic investigation of the the Rwandan society. In 1983 de Heusch made Sur les traces du Renard Pâle, with Jean Rouch and Germaine Dieterlen, and in 1996 Une république devenue folle (Rwanda 1894-1994). He has made a number of films on Belgian society, and several films on writers and artists, including members of the Cobra group and Magritte and Ensor. Luc de Heusch has contributed a substantial body of written publications on anthropology, sociology, ethnographic film and art. From 1955 to 1992 he taught at the Université libre de Bruxelles where he became a full professor in 1960. Luc de Heusch lives in Brussels.

Luc de Heusch je bil rojen let 1927 v Bruslu. Od 1944 do 1949 je študiral na Svobodni univerzi v Bruslu in od 1951 do 1952 na Sorboni. Leta 1955 je prejel doktorat bruselske univerze. Prve izkušnje s filmom je pridobil kot asistent Hennrija Storcka leta 1947. Sodeloval je pri ustanovitvi skupine Cobra leta 1949, pri kateri je sodeloval kot pisec in filmar do leta 1951. Pod psevdonimom Luc Zangrie je za Cobro posnel filmsko poemico »Persephone« (1951). Med leti 1952 in 1955 je nadaljeval etnološke raziskave s terenskim delom v bivšem belgijskem Kongu za Inštitut za znanstveno raziskovanje v Centralni Afriki. V tem času je začel izdelovati filme z etnografskimi in etnozgodovinskimi poudarki: »Fête chez le Hamba« (1955) prikazuje vsakodenovno življenje in obredno praksi v vasi pri Hambah. »Ruanda: tableaux d'une féodalité« (1956) je zgodovinska Raziskava ruandske družbe. Leta 1983 je naredil film »Sur les traces du Renard Pâle«, z Jean Rouchem in Germaine Dieterlen in leta 1996 »Une république devenue folle (Rwanda 1894-1994)«. Naredil je mnogo filmov o belgijski družbi in številne filme o piscih in umetnikih, vključno s člani Cobre, z Magrittom in Ensorjem. Luc de Heuschov bistveni prispevek je korpus pisanih publikacij o antropologiji, sociologiji, etnografiji, filmu in umetnosti. Od leta 1955 do 1992 je učil na Svobodni univerzi v Bruslu, kjer je leta 1960 postal redni profesor. Živi v Bruslu.

Location / kraj snemanja: Manica Province, Mozambique / Mozambik

The Vumba Hills in central Mozambique, close to the Zimbabwe border, are the kingdom of Mambo (Chief) Chirara. The Mambo's leading position is acknowledged by the government, and in addition to being the region's most important spiritual leader, the Mambo has the right to hold court cases that deal with minor crimes, problems involving spirits and domestic affairs. He is assisted by several subchiefs and ritual leaders. In the northernmost corner of the Mambo's kingdom, Mbuya Gondo, an over 70-years-old woman, is spiritual medium. She often holds ceremonies at a well-known rock drawing site. Mambo Chirara is not pleased with the old lady's activities. In his opinion Mbuya Gondo acts too independently and demands too much money for carrying out ceremonies. In the film, gender issues and local politics are brought to the surface as we follow these two leaders during a period of preparing for and performing the annual rainmaking rituals.

Vumba Hills v osrednjem Mozambiku, blizu meje z Zimbabvejem, je kraljestvo šefa Mambo Chirare. Vlada priznava njegov vodstveni položaj in s tem, ko je Mambo najpomembnejši duhovni vodja območja, ima pravico voditi sodne procese, ki se tičejo manjših kriminalnih dejanj in problemov, ki vključujejo duhovne in domače zadeve. Pomagajo mu številni podšefi in obredni vodje. V skrajnem severnem kotičku Mambovega kraljestva je duhovni medij 70-letna žena Mbuya Gondo. Mambo Chirara ni zadovoljen z njenimi aktivnostmi. Po njegovem mnenju Mbuya Gondo deluje preveč neodvisno in zahteva preveč denarja za izvedbo ceremonij. Ko v filmu spremljamo omenjena voditelja v času priprav in izvedbe vsakoletnega obreda za dež, pridejo na površje vprašanja odnosov med spoloma in lokalne politike.

Morokapel's feast. The story of a Kara hunting ritual

Morokapelovo praznovanje. Zgodba o lovskem obredu pri Karih

Germany, 2007, Steffen Köhn, 26 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Kara, South Omo, Ethiopia / Etiopia

This film tells the story of a hunt and its repercussions in the land of the Kara, Ethiopia. Morokapel has killed a leopard with a self-made trap. He brings the magnificent leopard skin to his mother-brother Samo in another village, who then holds for him a hunting ritual, endowing Morokapel with a higher status. The festivities take a surprising turn the morning after the ceremony: Morokapels supporters try to deny Samo the right to the valuable trophy through re-interpretation of ritual rules. The film illustrates how even traditional rituals can be manipulated for the economic and tactical interests. The film tries to develop these cultural ambiguities by dealing with the ethnographic encounter in a reflexive and transparent way.

Ta film pripoveduje zgodbo o lovu in njegovih posledicah v deželi Kara, Etiopija. Morokapel je ubil leoparda s smrtonosno pastjo. Čudovito leopardjo kožo prinese v sosednjo vas bratu svoje matere Samu, ki za njega opravi lovski ritual s katerim Morokapel pridobi višji status. Praznovanje dobi presenetljiv obrat naslednje jutro: Morokapelovi podporniki skušajo zanikati Samu pravico, da bi bi si prilastil leopardjo kožo s samovoljnim tolmačenjem obrednih pravil. Film ilustrira kako lahko nekdo manipulira celo s tradicionalnimi obredi v prid gospodarskih in taktičnih interesov. Film skuša pojasniti kulturne dvoumnosti z obravnavanjem etnografskih soočanj na refleksiven in transparenten način.

Location / kraj snemanja: Papua New Guinea / Papua Nova Gvineja

What does it mean when anthropologists claim to study the cultural tradition of others by participating in them? This film follows the Dutch anthropologist Ton Otto, who has been adopted by a family on the island of Baluan in the South Pacific. Due to the death of his adoptive father he has to take part in morutary ceremonies whose form and Content are however forcefully contested by different groups of relatives. Through the ensuring negotiations Ton learns how Baluan people perform and develop their traditions and not least what role he plays himself. The film is part of long-term fieldwork in which filmmaking has become integrated in the ongoing dialogue and eschange relations between the islanders and the anthropologist.

Kaj pomeni, ko se antropolog odloči, da bo študiral kulturno tradicijo drugih v sodelovanju z njimi? Film spreminja nizozemskega antropologa Ton Otta, ki ga je posvojila družina na otoku Baluan v južnem Pacifiku. Zaradi smrti njegovega adoptivnega očeta se je moral udeležiti pogrebnih slovesnosti, katerih oblika in vsebina sta bili predmet močne tekmovanosti med različnimi skupinami sorodnikov. Z zagotavljanjem pogajanj se Tone uči kako Baluani izvajajo in razvijajo svoje tradicije in ne nazadnje kakšno vlogo igrajo pri tem. Film je del dolgoročnega terenskega dela pri katerem je filmar postal sestavni del potekajočega dialoga in zamenjave odnosov med otočani in antropologom.

Obcina

Romania, 2007, Björn Reinhardt,
80 min.

Location / kraj snemanja:
Romania / Romunija

OBCINA is a small village hidden in the mountains. During summer dozens of Ruthenians live and work there. Before winter all of them leave the mountain village, that is exposed to extreme weather. Only the family of the cooper Stefan Cut hounds out on the mountain as they do so for many years now. During this time they try to defend themselves and their animals against invading wolves in order to survive with the few provisions they cultivated and harvested during the year. So far they always succeeded, but now a momentous accident threatens their existence.

Stefan had frozen his fingers while ascending from the village. Now he is frightened to undergo the painful amputation. But the family needs his important manpower to survive. The hard facts convince him in the end to dare undertake the surgical operation and apprehends with joy, that he can work again on the mountain.

Nevertheless the family wants to leave the mountain during wintertime. But like every year nobody believes them.

Obcina je skrita gorska vasica, kjer poleti živi in dela ducat Rutenijcev. Pred zimo vsi zapustijo gorsko vasico, ki bo izpostavljen skrajnim vremenskim razmeram. Samo družina kovača Stefana Cuta ostaja na planini kot to počne že več let. V tem času skušajo obraniti sebe in svoje živali pred volkovim in preživeti s skromnimi zalogami, ki so jih pridelali med letom. Doslej jim je vedno uspelo, toda zdaj nesrečni trenutek ogroža njihov ob-stoj. Stefanu so zmrznili prsti na roki, ko je odhajal v dolino. Zdaj se boji boleče amputacije. Družina pa bi za preživetje rabila njegove moške roke. Trda dejstva ga prepričajo, da se odloči za opracijo in z veseljem dožene, da bo lahko spet delal v planini. Kakorkoli, družina želi, da bi pozimi zapustili planino. Toda kot vsako leto, jim tega nihče ne verjame.

Old believers in Russia have a specific role as the most spiritually rich and at the same time tragic personification of the nation's historical pathway. Fate of every old believer family line is an example of suffering and tenacity. Lyubov Mikhailovna Deikova, our favorite heroine, is a very modest and very gifted person. But it is the point of other films. In this film Lyubov Mikhailovna tells about her family.

Staroverniki v Rusiji imajo posebno vlogo kot duhovno najbogatejši in hkrati kot tragično poosebljenje narodno zgodovinske poti. Usoda vsake od staroverskih družin je primer trpljenja in trdoživosti. Ljubov Mihajlovna Dejkova, junakinja filma, je zelo skromna in talentirana oseba. Toda to je predmet drugih filmov. V tem filmu Ljubov Mihajlovna pripoveduje o svoji družini.

Murmansk, Russia / Rusija

The inhabitants of the Russian town of Prirechny have received a letter from the county of Murmansk telling them that their town no longer exists. Still, a handful of retired persons refuse to leave this once-proud mining community. We meet four of them in their absurd, small universe in northern Russia. Aina and Fiodor have been married for fifty-three years. While Aina yearns for her husband's attention, Fjodor is mostly concerned with his vegetable garden. Maria has lost her dear husband and has grown bitter about her two sons. Diana is the town's diva. She dreams about love in a place where there live only five men.

Prebivalci ruskega mesta Prirehni so prejeli pismo okraja Murmansk, da njihovo mesto ne obstaja več. Kljub temu pesčica upokojencev odkloni, da bi zapustila, nekoč ponosno, rudarsko skupnost. Srečamo štiri od njih v njihovem absurdnem, malem občestvu v severni Rusiji. Aina in Fjodor sta bila poročena 53 let. Medtem, ko Aina hrepeni po moževi pozornosti, Fjodorja najbolj skrbi njegov zelenjavni vrt. Marija je izgubila dragega moža in ji grenita življenje njena dva sinova. Diana je mestna diva. Sanja o ljubezni v kraju, kjer živi samo pet ljudi.

Room 11, Ethiopia Hotel
Soba 11, Hotel Ethiopia
Japan, 2006, Itsushi Kawase, 23 min.
Location / kraj snemanja:
Gondar, Ethiopia / Etiopija

Ethiopia Hotel used to be part of the Italian army barracs during the Fascist occupation. From the hotel windows you can see the street, and the street children who struggle to survive each day. The film recounts the life of street children in Gondar, Ethiopia, by witnessing the communication and collaboration between the filmmaker and two children in a limited spatial setting, room 11 in the Ethiopia Hotel. This limited space allows the film to focus on communication and captures some of the ideas that enable them to endure and survive on the street.

Hotel Etiopija je bil včasih del italijanskih vojaških kasarn med fašistično okupacijo. S hotelskega okna je videti ulico in ulične otroke, ki se vsak dan borijo za preživetje.

Film pripoveduje o življenju otrok na ulici v Gondarju, Etiopiji, in priča o komunikaciji in sodelovanju med filmařem in dvema otrokoma v omejenem prostoru sobe 11, hotela Etiopija. Ta omejeni prostor dovoljuje, da se film osredotoči na komunikacijo in da zajame nekatere zamisli, ki pomagajo otrokom, da vztrajata in preživita na ulici.

SchoolScapes / Šolske slike

Australia, 2007, David MacDougall,
77 min.

Location / kraj snemanja:
South India / južna Indija

Inspired by the cinema of Lumière and the ideas of the 20th century Indian thinker Krishnamurti, David MacDougall this time explores a famous progressive school in South India, the Rishi Valley School. This is a film dedicated to the simple act of looking, in which each scene is a single shot.

Since completing the Doon School Quintet, his series of films about an elite boys' boarding school in North India, MacDougall has turned his attention to other institutions for children in India. The coeducational Rishi Valley School in Andra Pradesh was founded on the educational principles espoused by Jiddu Krishnamurti, who stressed the importance of observing the world around us more calmly and simply, as if with fresh eyes. SchoolScape was made in this spirit.

V tem filmu David MacDougall, navdihnjen z Lumièreovim kinematografom in z idejami indijskega misleca 20. stoletja Krišnamurtija, raziskuje znano napredno šolo v južni Indiji, Rishi Valley School. To je film, posvečen preprostemu aktu gledanja, v katerem je vsaka scena v enem kadru.

Po dokončanju filmske serije Doon School Quintet, o elitni deški šoli v severni Indiji, je MacDougall usmeril svojo pozornost na druge ustanove za otroke v Indiji. Rishi Valley School v Andra Pradešu je bila ustanovljena na vzgojnih načelih, zavezanih Jiddu Krišnamurtiju, ki je poudarjal pomembnost opazovanja sveta okoli nas mirneje in preprosteje kot to delamo z golinim očesom. Slike iz sole so narejene v tem duhu.

Location / kraj snemanja:
Romania / Romunija

Ciprian, a young Romanian immigrant from Timisoara living in Belgium takes us through his city and his grand-mother's small town.

Driving around we take hitch-hikers. They tell us about the way they see the differences between past and present in Romania: changes between the city and the country side, the past and the future, the East and the West. Also, they speak about the misunderstandings between generations.

Such as many countries in the premise of the 21st century, Romania sits somewhere in the middle.

I come from Western Europe and I met Romania and Ciprian more than a year ago. This country intrigued me, its pace inspired me. Where is this country going to? What future can Romanians look for? In a context of social, cultural, economical and political transformations, will they find a new way to inhabit and see the world? If they find their way, what can we learn about the images that they put forward? Through this video made as a log book I tempted to be as intimate as possible to the Romanian people and ask them genuine questions about the future of our societies.

Ciprian je mlad romunski priseljenec iz Temišvara, ki živi v Belgiji. Popelje nas skozi svoje mesto in mesto svoje stare mame. Na poti z avtom pobiramo štoperje. Pripovedujejo kako vidijo razlike med preteklostjo in sedanostjo v Romuniji: spremembe med mestom in vasjo, preteklostjo in sedanostjo, med Vzhodom in Zahodom. Govorijo tudi o nerazumevanju med generacijami. Tako kot mnogo drugih dežel na začetku 21. stoletja, se tudi Romunija nahaja nekje na sredini.

Avtorica prihajam iz zahodne Evrope in sem se srečala z Romunijo in Cipriantom pred več kot enim letom. Dežela me je vznemirila in njen ritem me je nadvihnil. Kam gre ta dežela? Kakšno božičnost si lahko poiščejo Romuni? Ali bodo v kontekstu družbenih, kulturnih, ekonomskih in političnih sprememb našli novo pot za bivanje in nov pogled na svet? Če bodo našli svojo pot, kaj se lahko naučimo o predstavah, ki jo naka-zujejo? S tem filmom, ki je kot dnevnik, sem želela biti čim bolj prijateljska z Romuni in jim postavljala prava vprašanja o bodočnosti naših družb.

Two filmmakers spend time getting to know Ruth and Natalia, two young Romanian women who grew up together in the Transylvania village Malancrav. One if them is a Gypsy, then other is a Saxon; one left the village, the other chose to stay. The only thing they seem to share is their friendship. The film explores the relationship of the two women and questions our understanding of social and ethnic belonging, migration, money, rural life and the search for one's roots.

Avtorici filma sta se trudita spoznati Ruth in Natalijo, dve mladi romunski ženi, ki sta skupaj odražali v transilvanski vasi Malancrav. Ena od njiju je Romaninja, druga je Saksonka; ena je zapustila vas, druga se je odločila ostati. Edina stvar, ki ju druži, je njuno prijateljstvo. Film raziskuje razmerje med obema ženama in načenja spraševanje o družbeni in etnični pripadnosti, o izseljenstvu, denarju, podeželskemu življenju in iskanju posameznikovih korenin.

Taste of Europe / Okus Evrope
 Slovenia, 2006, Uroš Lebar, 90 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Slovenia & Italy & Spain & France & Netherlands

Social critical documentary Taste of Europe conceptualizes immigration and life in Europe through personal declaration of 25 immigrants who came to live in EU from all sites of the globe. As the author Uroš Lebar emphasises, the film is addressing two types of viewers: (1) to the future immigrants, it tries to offer the reflection on the situations in which they will most probably encounter when they reach their final destination, and

(2) to the people already born in the European society, it tries to bring near experiential site of the immigration and to present the life in EU through the eyes of the immigrants.

Družbeno kritični dokumentarec Okus Evrope konceptualizira priseljenstvo in življenje v Evropi skozi izjave 25 priseljencev, ki so prišli v Evropo z vseh strani sveta. Kot poudarja avtor, film navrja dve vrsti gledalcev: (1) bodočim priseljencem skuša ponuditi razmislek o položaju s katerim se bodo najverjetneje srečali, ko bodo prispleli na cilj in (2) ljudem, rojenim v evropski družbi, skuša približati izkustveno plat priseljenstva in predstaviti življenje v Evropi z očmi priseljenca.

Textiles in Ayacucho Tkanine iz Ayachucha

USA, 2007, Peter Biella, 14 min.
Location / kraj snemanja: Peru

Textiles from the “Artes en Ayacucho”
DVD, received the American Anthropological Association’s Best Short Film Award. Shot in the thin air at 16,000 feet in Ayacucho, Peru, it follows the process of textile production from the shearing of alpacas to the dyeing and weaving of wool. “Textiles” is a work of applied visual anthropology. Independent of its ethnographic value, it was made first for wholesalers in Europe and the US to help the people of Ayacucho promote their textile co-op. By showing wholesalers how complex and time-consuming the process is, the film helps justify a modestly high price to retailers. With this primary goal, the film does not pursue a word-based vérité style, but rests entirely on the image, logic and beauty of the Ayacucho textile production process.

Tkanine iz sklopa filmov Umetnost v Ajakuči, je prejel nagrado Ameriške antropološke zveze za najboljši kratki film. Posnet je bil v redkem zraku na višini dobrih 5000 m v Ajakuči, v Periju in sledi postopku izdelave tkanin od izbiranja alpak do barvanja in pletenja volne. Tkanine so delo uporabne vizualne antropologije. Neodvisno od etnografske vrednosti, so bile narejene na prvem mestu za veletrgovce v Evropi in Združenih državah, da bi ljudem iz Ajakuče pomagale oznanjati njihove tekstilne delavnice. Veletrgovcem naj bi film pokazal kako zahteven in dolgotrajen je cel postopek in s tem upravičil razmeroma visoko ceno v maloprodaji. Temu osnovnemu cilju film ne sledi v slogu cinéma vérité na podlagi besed, temveč sloni izključno s sliko, logiko in lepoto ajakuškega postopka izdelave tkanin.

SPECIAL ASEN BALIKCI POSEBNI PROGRAM: ASEN BALIKCI

The anthropologist and filmmaker, Asen Balikci has been an innovator in the field of ethnographic film and film in education for many years. Educated in francophone Switzerland, Professor Balikci obtained a Ph.D. in Anthropology from Columbia University. From 1957 to 1965 he conducted fieldwork with the Netsilik Eskimos of the Canadian Arctic Coast resulting in a series of 12 films on traditional lifestyles (1968) that were broadcast by a multitude of international television stations. From 1963 to 1966 he was a senior scientist in the Man: A Course of Study Program (Education Development Center, Newton, Mass.) The field of human ecology in arctic and arid zones, already present in the Netsilik Eskimo films, appears again in The Sons of Haji Omar (1978), a much regarded study of nomadism and rural life among Pashtoon pastoralists in Afghanistan, in collaboration with Timothy Asch.

From 1989 to 1991 Professor Balikci made a number of field trips to Siberia where he shot Chronicle of Sereniki (1989) and initiated a program for teaching visual anthropology centered on the Khazim River Ostyak of Western Siberia. From 1992 until 1998 he worked on a Research project on inter-ethnic relations in Southwest Bulgaria, and on the culture of poverty in post-socialist Bulgaria, while teaching visual anthropology in multicultural settings.

Asen Balikci is the author of numerous publications in English, French, and Bulgarian, which center on the topics of the ethnography of the peoples of the Arctic Coast, pastoralism in general, and visual anthropology. He was co-chairman of the Program in Ethnographic Film (PIEF), from 1966-1968, chairman of the Commission on Visual Anthropology, from 1983-1993, associate editor of Visual Anthropology (1986-1993), and editor of CVA Review (1986-1993). Among various academic positions Balikci held a chair as a professor of Anthropology at the Université de Montréal from which he retired in 1994. When he retired from his academic post, he moved back to his home country of Bulgaria to apply his media skills to facilitate communication and education both inside and outside the country.

Antropolog in filmar Asen Balikci je bil dolga leta inovator na področju etnografskega in izobraževalnega filma. Izobraževal se je v frankofonski Švici. Doktorat iz antropologije je pridobil na Univerzi Kolumbija leta 1957. Do leta 1965 je vodil terensko delo pri Eskimih Netsilik na kanadski arktični obali, katerega rezultat je bila serija 12 filmov o tradicionalnem življenjskem slogu (1968), ki so jo predvajale številne mednarodne televizijske postaje. Od leta 1963 do 1966 je bil znanstveni svetnik pri programu Man: a Course of Study Program (Education Development Center, Newton, Mass.). Področje ekologije človeka (human ecology) v arktičnih območjih, ki je bilo prisotno že v filmih o Eskimih, se ponovno pojavi v filmu The Sons of Haji Omar (1978), zelo cenjeni študiji nomadizma in podeželskega življenja med pastirskimi Paštuni v Afganistanu, v sodelovanju s Timothyjem Aschem.

Od leta 1989 do 1991 je profesor Balikci opravil številne terenske poti po Sibiriji, kjer je posnel Chronicle of Sereniki (1989) in začel s programom učenja vizualne antropologije s središčem pri Ostjakih ob reki Kazim, v zahodni Sibiriji. Od leta 1992 do 1998 je opravljal raziskave o medetničnih odnosih v jugozahodni Bolgariji in o kulturi revščine v post socialistični Bolgariji in zraven učil vizualno antropologijo v večkulturnih okoljih.

Asen Balikci je avtor številnih publikacij v angleškem, francoskem in bolgarskem jeziku, ki se osredotočajo na etnografijo ljudstev arktičnega kroga, pastoralizma in splošne ter vizualne antropologije. Bil je sopredsednik Programa za etnografski film (PIEF) od leta 1966 do 1968, predsednik Komisije za vizualno antropologijo od leta 1983 do 1993, pridruženi urednik revije Visual Anthropology (1986-1993) in urednik CVA Review (1986-1993). Med raznimi akademskimi zadolžitvami je bil Balikci profesor antropologije na Univerzi v Montrealu, kjer se je upokojil leta 1994. Ko je zapustil akademski položaj se je preselil v svojo domovino Bolgarijo, da bi uporabljal svoje veščine na področju vizualnega medija ter pospeševal komunikacijo in izobraževanje tako v domovini kot izven nje.

Village Breznitsa is located at the foot-hills of Pirin mountain, SW Bulgaria. The inhabitants are Pomak, Bulgarian speaking Muslims converted to Islam three centuries ago. They consider themselves to be Turks from the ancient city of Konya in Anatolia. Applying a strategy of withdrawal and tacit resistance, they managed to survive the constraints of communism. With the advent of democracy in 1989 a variety of new ideological pressures began to be felt in the village. This film is a statement about the ideological confusion prevailing among Balkan Muslims today. The film is a result of the cooperation between a Canadian anthropologist (A. Balikci), and a Bulgarian film director (A. Donchev). The cameraman (I. Junin) is a young villager trained in ethnographic video methods in 1994 in the context of a UNESCO sponsored seminar. His camerawork is expressive of a very intimate knowledge of village affairs.

Vas Breznica leži ob vznožju pirinskega gorovja, v jugozahodni Bolgariji. Prebi-valci so Pomaki, bolgarsko govoreči muslimani, ki so sprejeli islam pred tremi stoletji. Imajo se za Turke iz starih mest Konja in Anatolija. S strategijo odmikanja in molčečega odpora so preživeli pritiske komunizma. S prihodom demokracije leta 1989 so v vasi občutili različne nove ideološke pritiske. Ta film izraža pogled na današnjo prevladujočo ideološko zmedo med balkanskimi muslimani.

Film je rezultat sodelovanja med kanadskim antropologom in bolgarskim režiserjem. (A. Dončev). Snemalec (I. Junin) je mlad vaščan, izučen za etnografske video metode leta 1994 v okviru seminarja, ki ga je sponzoriral UNESCO. Njegovo snemalsko delo izraža zelo osebno poznavanje vaških zadev.

The film illustrates the changes the Lepcha of the Dzongu reserve, North Sikkim, Eastern Himalaya, have been through in the last 60 years. From the 1940s, the Lepcha of Tingvong village gradually abandoned hunting, gathering and the slash and burn cultivation of dry rice, and became settled agriculturalists. Whole mountain sides were converted to cardamom and terraced for the cultivation of irrigated paddy. The irrigated rice and the cardamom cash crop not only brought the Lepcha within Sikkim's market economy but helped create a surplus which could, among other things, be invested in religion. In the 1940s, the Lepcha of Tingvong embraced Buddhism and all its complex rituals without however abandoning their strong shamanic traditions. Today, both forms of rituals amiably co-exist in the village. This film is part of a long term visual ethnography training project for the tribal communities of Sikkim. The first phase aims to document the social life and rituals of the Lepcha of Dzongu. We have accumulated over 100 hours of material which is archived at the institute for Research purposes. This is the first film edited from the material. In the near future several thematic films will be edited for museum and classroom use.

Film prikazuje spremembe, ki so jih prestajali Lepče v Dzongu rezervatu (severni Sikkim, vzhodna Himalaja) v zadnjih 60 letih. Od leta 1940 so Lepče iz vasi Tingvong postopoma opustili lov, nabiralništvo ter požigalniški način gojenja suhega riža in postali poljedelci. Celotne gorske površine so bile namenjene gojenju kardamoma in terasam za namakalno gojenje riža. Zaslužek z rižem in kardamomom ni samo vključil Lepč v

Sikimsko gospodarstvo, temveč je pri-pomogel k investiranju, npr. v religijo.

Leta 1940 so Lepče v Tingvongu spre-jeli budizem in vse njegove kompleksne obrede, ne da bi opustili močno šaman-sko tradicijo. Danes v vasi prijateljsko soobstajata obe obredni obliki.

Ta film je del dolgoročnega etnografskega projekta urjenja za plemenske sku-pnosti v Sikimu. V prvi fazi namerava-mo dokumentirati družbeno življenje in obrede med Lepči v Dzongu. Zbrali smo preko 100 ur gradiva, ki je shranjeno na inštitut za raziskovalne namene. To je prvi film, ki je zmontiran iz gradiva. V bližnji prihodnosti bodo zmontirani številni tematski filmi za muzejsko in šolsko rabo.

Through These Eyes
Skozi pogled drugih
 USA, 2003, Charles Laird, 55 min.
Location / kraj snemanja:
 USA & Canada

At the onset of the space race in the 1960s, the U.S. government feared its educational system was slipping behind the Soviet Union's. A controversial science initiative grew out of its response, Man: A Course of Study, a program with the ambitious goal of teaching American children what it was to be human. At the program's core was a benchmark of visual anthropology, the Netsilik Film Series, capturing a year in the life of a small Inuit community on the cusp of contact.

Man: A Course of Study created a clash of values that rippled throughout the schools of America, and revealed the fragile relationship between politics and educational reform. Weaving together remarkable archival and contemporary footage, Through These Eyes revisits the politics and controversy of this unprece-dented era in American educational re-form and offers an historical perspective on the study of anthropology.

V teku vesoljske tekme, v 60. letih, se je vrlada ZDA zbalala, da njen izobraževalni sistem zaostaja za sovjetskim. V odgovor na to je nastala znanstvena pobuda, Man: A Course of Study (Človek: pred-tem raziskave), program z ambicioznim ciljem naučiti ameriške otroke kaj vse pomeni biti Človek. V središču progra-mma je bil orientir vizualne antropologije, serija filmov o Netsilik Eskimih, ki je zajemala leto dni življenja male Inuitske skupnosti.

Man: A Course of Study je ustvaril trk vrednot, ki je valoval skozi ameriške šole in razkril krhko razmerje med politični-mi in izobraževalnimi reformami. Film Through these eyes s prepletanjem izje-mnega arhivskega in sodobnega gradiva poustvari sliko politike in nasprotij v ti-stem neponovljivem obdobju ameriških izobraževalnih reform in ponudi zgodo-vinski pogled na študij antropologije.

SPECIAL PAOLO PIQUEREDDU I.S.R.E.

POSEBNI PROGRAM: PAOLO PIQUEREDDU

Paolo Piquereddu presents a selection of the I.S.R.E. Istituto Superiore Regionale Etnografico (Nuoro, Sardinija) films from 1991 to 2008.

Paolo Piquereddu predstavlja izbor filmov sardinskega etnografskega inštituta od leta 1991 do 2008.

Don Conte a Ovonna

Paolo Piquereddu, 1991, (1996), 20 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Sardinia

Carnival in Barbagia—mountain region of central Sardinia—is characterized by a peculiar, in some way sad and disquieting, atmosphere due to the presence of the traditional shepherds' masks: these are made of sheep skins, cowbells and grotesque face masks. Those of the Mamuthones, from Mamoiada, are the most famous. Detached from the widespread melancholic mood of Barbagia Carnivals is the event related to the death of Don Conte, in Ovonna. There, on Ash Wednesday, a unique event characterized by a merry anarchy takes place around a huge puppet called Don Conte. Whoever appears in the main square of the village has his face immediately soiled with burnt cork, in a sort of "memento mori" which precedes the immersion in a small and involving "up-side down world". The feast reaches its height when, at nightfall, the puppet is set on fire. At times lighting follows the trial and conviction, at times there is no trial; it is inevitable, however, that Don Conte, being responsible for the ills of the community, undergoes the just punishment. Everyone seems to be pleased with his death, even though someone weeps disconsolately.

Za karneval v Barbagiu, gorskem območju osrednje Sardinije, je značilno čudno, na nek način žalostno in vzne-mirjeno vzdušje, zahvaljujoč prisotnosti tradicionalnih pastirskeh mask. Nare-jene so iz ovčje kože, s kravjimi zvonci in grotesknimi naličji. Zlasti so slavni t.i. Mamutoni iz Mamoiade. Od široko razširjenega melanholičnega razpoloženja karnevala v Barbagiu se je odcepil dogodek povezan s smrtno Don Conteja, v vasi Ovonna. Na pepelnično sredo se tam odvija edinstven veselo anarhični dogodek okoli ogromne lutke Don Conteja. Kdorkoli se prikaže na glavnem vaškem trgu, ga takoj namažejo s sajami kot nekakšen memento mori pred potopitvijo v mali in vabljiv narobe svet. Praznik doseže vrh, ko s prihodom noči zažgejo lutko. Včasih zažiganju sledi sojenje in obsodba, včasih ni sojenja, a je neizogibno da je Don Conte, kriv za vse bolezni skupnosti, pravično kaznovan. Izgleda, da so vsi zadovoljni z njegovo smrtno, čeprav nekateri neutolažljivo jo-kajo.

S'Ardia

Gianfranco Cabiddu, 1994, 75 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Sardinia

S'Ardia takes place on 6 and 7 July at the sanctuary of San Costantino in Sedilo, in the very heart of Sardinia. According to popular tradition, this horse race, so short as intense and fascinating, is meant to celebrate the victory of Emperor Constantine over Maxentius in the battle of Ponte Milvio in AD 312.

Actually, such ancient forms of popular religiousness, parallel to the standard ones, still convey traditional Contents and new themes which make this feast identical yet different year after year.

The film has its highlight in the suspended wait of the Pandela Madzore (the First Flag), before riders gallop away from su frontigheddu: in that moment are condensed the year long wait and the intimate sense of belonging to a community of the people from Sedilo, since, as they say: "The first flag is made only once in life and one must try to make it successfully".

Ardia poteka 6. in 7. julija v svetišču San Constantino v Sedilu v samem osrčju Sardinije. V skladu s priljubljeno tradicijo pomeni ta kratka a intenzivna in očarljiva konjska dirka, proslavo zmage cesarja Konstantina nad Maxentiusom v bitki pri Ponte Milvio leta 312.

Dejansko take stare oblike ljudske vernosti, vzporedno s standardnimi, izražajo tradicionalno vsebino in nove teme, ki naredijo to vsakoletno praznovanje vsakič podobno in hkrati različno. Vrhunec filma je v napetem pričakovanju Pandela Madzore (prva zastava), preden jezdci galopirajo stran od "su frontigheddu": v tem trenutku so zgoščena celoletna pričakovanja in intimni občutki pripadnosti skupnosti ljudi v Sedilu, kajti, kot pravijo: "Prvo zastavo napravimo samo enkrat v življenju in takrat moramo poskušati biti uspešni".

In viaggio per la musica

Na potovanju za glasbo

Marco Lutzu e Valentina Manconi,

2004, 22 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Sardinia

For around twenty five years in summertime, on the occasion of village festivals, the Macis' from Quartu Sant'Elena (Cagliari) travel the length and breadth of Southern Sardinia to attend the exhibitions of extemporary poets who use the campidanese tongue.

A car ride with them provides the opportunity to better understand the love, conceptions and expectations of expert listeners, people who fulfil a fundamental role in the social dynamics of the fruition and production of traditional extemporary poetry. The faithful registration and preservation of all the competitions, the way they share in the performances, aesthetic and stylistic conceptions, their relationship with professional poets and other poetry lovers are some of the aspects this documentary investigates.

Že 25 let Macis' iz Quartu Sant' Elena (Cagliari) vsako poletje, ob vaškem festivalu potujejo širom južne Sardinije in se udeležujejo bralnih prireditev pesnikov, ki uporabljajo jezik campidanese. Na vožnji z njimi je priložnost za boljše razumevanje ljubezni, zasnove in pričakovanj večih poslušalcev, ljudi, ki izpolnjujejo bistveno vlogo v družbeni dinamiki zorenja in produkcije tradicionalne bralne poezije. Verno beleženje in ohranjanje vseh tekmovanj, način razdajanja na predstavah, estetske in stilistične zaslove, njihov odnos do poklicnih pesnikov in drugih ljubiteljev poezije, so nekateri vidiki te dokumentarne raziskave.

Tempus de Baristas
Čas barmanov

David MacDougall, 1993, 100 min.

Location / kraj snemanja: Sardinia

Tempus de Baristas explores the character and prospects of three mountain shepherds of eastern Sardinia. Pietro is seventeen. He loyally helps his father, Franciscu, herding and milking their goats, but like other Sardinian youths he also goes to school, wears jeans and T-shirts and meets other teenagers at night in the village square. Their friend, Miminu, now in his forties, tends his family's large herd of goats virtually alone. He faces an uncertain future as commercial cheese-making and modern marketing increasingly displace traditional modes of pastoralism. Although born only about 20 years apart, each of these shepherds has grown up in a different world. For Pietro the lives of his father and Miminu are reference points against which to measure himself and consider his future.

Filmed in an intimate style during the summer and autumn of 1992, this film by award-winning filmmaker David MacDougall offers some of the complexity of a contemporary - a quality rarely seen in today's documentaries

Čas barmanov raziskuje značaj in pričakovanja treh planinskih pastirjev v vzhodni Sardiniji. Pietro je star sedemnajst let. Vdano pomaga svojemu očetu Franciscu pri paši in molži koza, toda kot ostala sardinska mladina hodi tudi v šolo, nosi jeans in T-majice in srečuje druge mladostnike ponoči na vaškem trgu.

Njun prijatelj Miminu, štiridesetletnik, vzdržuje veliko družinsko čredo koz takoreč sam. Sooča se z negotovo prihodnostjo, ker komercialna izdelava sira in moderno trženje nezadržno nadomeščata tradicionalne oblike pastirstva.

Čeprav so rojeni komaj 20 let narazen, je vsak od teh pastirjev vzgojen v drugačnem svetu. Za Pietra sta življenji njegovega očeta in Miminiha opozorilo, da mora drugače poskrbeti za svojo prihodnost.

Film, posnet v prisrčnem slogu poleti in jeseni leta 1992, je delo večkrat nagradjenega filmlarja Davida MacDougalla in ponuja del kompleksnosti sodobnega časa – nekaj, kar redko vidimo v današnjih dokumentarcih.

Looking inwards: Dutch Visual Anthropology observing Dutch society

Pogled navznoter: Nizozemska vizualna antropologija opazuje nizozemsko družbo

Introduction

In the last ten years, Dutch anthropologists and filmmakers working on and in their own society have increasingly focused themselves on the influence of globalization, the opening up of borders and the growing influx of immigrants and new cultures. Two main arenas represent the two sides of the same medal being modern Dutch society: the countryside and urban institutions. The countryside is seen as the last resort of traditional culture, the urban institutions are more and more considered the best places to study modern society: its growing problems of emerging sub- or under classes and its crumbling traditional family ties, as well as its new cultural constellations provide an outstanding laboratory for anthropologists and filmmakers alike. Today we will see examples of both ways of looking at

SPECIAL EDDY APPELS · POSEBNI PROGRAM: EDDY APPELS · PO

Dutch society in the beginning of the new millennium.

Uvod

V zadnjih desetih letih so se nizozemski antropologi in filmlarji, ki delujejo v okviru svoje družbe, močneje usmerili na vplive globalizacije, na odpiranje meja in na rastoči pritok priseljencev ter novih kultur. Dve glavni področji predstavljata dve strani iste medalje moderne nizozemske družbe: podeželje in urbane institucije. Podeželje vidimo kot zadnje zatočišče tradicionalne kulture, urbane institucije pa so vse bolj upoštevane kot najboljše mesto za preučevanje moderne družbe: njeni rastoči problemi s pojavljanjem novih razredov in rušenje tradicionalnih družinskih vezi kot tudi nove kulturne povezave, pomenijo izjemen laboratorij za antropologe in tudi za filmlarje. Danes bomo videli primera obeh načinov gledanja na nizozemsko družbo v začetku novega tisočletja.

J.W.L. Adolfs produced over 1500 films shot in the villages of Holland in the fifties and sixties of the last century. Made primarily to raise money for the brass bands in the different villages, they now provide anthropologists and other Researchers with an astonishing amount of details of what rural Holland looked like in the fifties and sixties, before globalization and mass immigration changed the nature of Dutch society from a predominantly agricultural society to an urbanized multicultural one.

In this presentation, based upon Research conducted for the Dutch Ministry of Culture, we will see a short film compiled from the films of Adolfs, showing us an unspoiled and paradise-like countryside, where life is supposedly simple and good. The renewed interest in these films shows an increasing nostalgia towards pre-modern life, constructing an ‘imagined community’. We will also go into the possibilities and problems of using audio-visual archive material in studying ‘past cultures’.

J.W.L. Adolfs je naredil preko 1500 filmov, posnetih v holandskih vaseh v petdesetih in šestdesetih letih prejšnjega stoletja. Čeprav so bili narejeni, da bi zasluzil denar za pihalne godbe v različnih vaseh, ti filmi danes oskrbujejo antropologe in druge raziskovalce z izjemno ko-ličino podrobnosti o tem kako je Holandija izgledala v petdesetih in šestdesetih letih, preden sta globalizacija in množično priseljevanje spremenila naravo nizozemske družbe od pretežno kmečke v urbanizirano in multikulturno.

V tem filmu, ki temelji na raziskavi vodenih za nizozemsko ministrstvo za kulturo, bomo videli odlomke iz Adolfovih filmov, ki nam kažejo podeželje nepokvarjeno in kot iz paradiža, kjer je življenje domnevno preprosto in dobro. Novo zanimanje za te filme kaže rastočo nostalгијo za predmodernim življenjem, ki ustvarja ‘namišljeno skupnost’. Lotili se bomo tudi možnosti in problemov uporabe avdio vizualnega arhivskega gradiva v preučevanju ‘preteklih kultur’.

Ta dokumentarec je bil posnet v provinci Zeeland na Nizozemskem. Dve veliki kmetiji, ki še vedno uporablja delovne konje, je avtorica filma spremljala v celotnem kmetovalskem obdobju. Film ponuja osupljiv vidik, ki uvaja gledalca v življenje ljudi, ki delajo s temi ogromnimi konji.

In an Amsterdam street stands De Veerhuis, a normal house in a normal neighbourhood, where children play and people come to die. Together with their loved ones people spend their last moments in this temporary 'home from home'. The filmmaker/anthropologist has worked as a volunteer for two years in this hospice before starting to film. The result is a deeply moving film about death and how modern society deals with it.

Na neki amsterdamski ulici stoji De Veerhuis, navadna hiša v navadnem sosedstvu, kjer se igrajo otroci in kamor ljudje prihajajo umirat. Skupaj s svojimi dragimi preživijo svoje zadnje trenutke v tem začasnom 'domu iz doma'. Filmar/antropolog je kot prostovoljec delal dve leti v tem hospicu, preden je začel snemati film. Rezultat je globoko ganljiv film o smrti in kako jo obravnava moderna družba.

The Kingmaschool in Amsterdam is a special secondary school for children with severe learning disabilities, often combined with behavioural problems.

The makers have filmed in the school every day for over a year. The result is an important document in the style of the Cinema Vérité. The film gives a startling image of the culture of poverty in western society, transmitting itself through the next generation and thereby creating the outcasts of the future. But the film also portrays the teachers at the school who are desperately trying to stop this vicious circle.

Kingmaschool v Amsterdamu je posebna srednja šola za otroke z resnimi učnimi težavami, često kombiniranimi z vedenjskimi problemi. Ustvarjalci so snemali v šoli leto in dan. Rezultat je pomemben dokument v slogu cinema vérité. Film nam daje prese netljivo sliko kulture revščine v zahodni družbi, ki se prenaša v naslednjo generacijo in tam ustvarja izobčence prihodnosti. Toda film portretira tudi učitelje v šoli, ki se brezupno trudijo, da bi ustavili ta začranci krog.
